Brief about the Activity :-

Musical chairs is a group game where chairs are laid out in a circle facing out side. The players then have to run around the chairs till music is played and occupy positions as soon as the music stops playing. The one, who misses out on sitting, loses.

To build the sportsman spirit our school organized “Musical Chair Activity” under Bal Sabha Activity. All the students of pre school enjoyed this activity. All the children showed their activeness & alertness by playing well in the activity. To conclude teachers & students enjoyed the activity and spent a wonderful time while doing the activity.

Objective of the activity:-

1. They became alert and active.
2. Developed their listening skills.
3. Developed their gross motor skills.
