Report of Hindi Decamation Competition (III-V) 2019-20 (Bal Sabha Activity)

BBPS Jharli organized Hindi Decamation Competition for the students of Grade III-V as Bal Sabha Activity on 26th July 2019 .

Declamation refers to reciting a speech with feelings.
The objective of this event was to develop the art of public speaking, promote confidence and sense of responsibility amongst students. The intention was to motivate the students and to make them experience the depth and beauty of speaking in Hindi.

The students enthusiastically participated in the competition and exhibited their hidden potential. The declamation witnessed a fierce competition with dexterous articulation among participants. Every contestant was well prepared and displayed his/her best.

Our Principal Dr Sanjiv M. Lyall congratulated the students for their phenomenal performance and superlative oratory skill.
