

1. COMMUNITY OUTREACH

BBPS Jharli remains deeply committed to giving back to society through various community outreach initiatives conducted throughout the academic session. The school actively organizes and participates in activities such as food distribution on Food Day, cleanliness drives accompanied by impactful street plays, and awareness campaigns focusing on road safety and other social concerns.

